Musselfork Memoirs.

Jacob Gibson is building a new stock barn.

C. B. Kavanaugh is building more stable room.

Squire E. A. Chapman is building a new stock barn.

Marion Cowser is building an addition to his residence.

LeRoy Davis, our new druggist, went to Dalton Tuesday night.

C. C. Courtney of near Keytesville was up last Friday buying mules.

James Kelso of Callao was here Tuesday looking for mules to buy.

J. G. Embree of Marceline visited at B. F. Ford's last Saturday night.

Mell Chadwick has his blacksmith up and has commenced work for the public.

Rev. J. L. Routt filled his regular appointment at the C. P. church last Sunday.

The union Sunday-school is kept up with very good interest at the C. P. church.

The dedication of the Union church is announced for the second Sunday in October.

Jacob McCloud, A. B. Weatherford and S. E. Chrane went to Prairie Hill Tuesday night to be initiated in the Modern Woodmen order.

S. S. Kelso is visiting some of the Eastern cities, having started from here the first of the month to attend the national encampment of the G. A. R. at Philadelphia. He expects to be gone about a month.

Hickory Grove Hints.

Chills and fever are prevalent.

Prayer-meeting at Bethel every Tuesday night.

Miss Lizzie Knox is convalescing after a serious illness.

Our school is progressing nicely with Benj. Griswold as teacher.

Owing to the rains last Sunday preaching at Bethel was deferred.

Misses Anna and Bessie Williams are recovering from an attack of sickness.

Mrs. I. M. Wiseman and son, W. M., are visiting relatives in West Grove, Iowa.

Dr. E. B. Chester of Kentucky was the guest of the Misses Barnes the first of the week.

Miss Ola Smith returned to her home Saturday after several days' visit to St. Joseph relatives.

John and Arnold when last seen were traversing the regions between Hickory Grove and Musselfork.

Miss Blanche Brown of Brunswick was visiting in this and adjoining communities the first of the week.

Miss Lela Chapman, one of Musselfork's most amiable young school teachers, is visiting the Misses Barnes this week.

Miss Ollie Paulsen, who is in St. Louis taking treatment for her throat, is, we are glad to learn, much improved, and will soon be at home again.

John Williams has returned from Oklahoma, and we think he is a little bit impressed with that country, for he thinks of removing his family there and dwelling permanently in the "sunny South."

Mike Murmurings.

T. J. Berney of Hamden accompanied Father Ubald to Hurricane Branch Saturday.

Mrs. Elmer Walker is at Rothville waiting on her daughter, Mrs. Thede Walden, who is dangerously ill.

Little Homer Dempsey of Keytesville is visiting his grandpa and grandma, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Smith.

Misses Isabella Smith and Ovida Sumner were the guests of Misses Mary and Lulu Frame, near Mendon, Thursday.

Miss Ovida Sumner returned to her home in Kansas City Tuesday after a protracted visit with friends in this community.

Mike Kost and wife and little daughter, Eva, of Marceline visited Mrs. Kost's parents, Mr. and Mrs.

Lewis Ladenburg, Friday and Saturday.

Messrs. Frank Benson and Gus Monk, two of Newhall's energetic young men, visited their friend, Oscar Smith, Sunday.

W. G. Smith and sister, Miss Lizzie, and Miss Myrtle Campbell of near Guthridge Mills attended mass at St. Joseph's church Sunday.

Dr. A. W. Zillman of Indian Grove and Dr. W. D. West of Mike performed an operation Sunday on Miss Mabel Dowell, who was suffering with appendicitis. So far she is doing fine.

Quite a number of young folks assembled at the home of Mathias Smith Friday night, each girl bringing a pie and each boy a pound of candy. The evening was spent in music, conversation and games. The candy was sweet and the pie hard to beat.

The cake and fruit party given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Shacklett Thursday night was enjoyed by all. The entire crowd seemed to be in an extra jolly mood. Perhaps it was owing to the warm welcome they received from the host and hostess.

Field City Favors.

Fine rain, good for late corn.

J. C. Cash is completing an addition to his dwelling house.

Tobe Gordon is carrying the mail for Casper Cash this week.

We learn that there is a case of mumps in the Walker school.

Albert Morgan has been appointed road overseer for this district.

Many of our farmers are busy hauling their cane to sorghum mills.

G. W. Harlan was down this week with a good job for our city blacksmith.

S. P. Johnson and his two boys went over near Prairie Hill to sow wheat.

The area of wheat this fall will not in this locality, be one-half what it was last year.

Our saw-mill is running in full blast and is not able to supply all the lumber needed.

Miss Ola Oldham, teacher at Bell school-house, is getting along splendidly with her school.

The corn crop in this vicinity, taken as a whole, is rather better than other parts of the county.

Ed. Gordon is assisting our city blacksmith and wagon-maker. They are crowded with work.

Corn-cutting is now in order. A considerable quantity will be harvested. The fodder is very fine.

E. W. Johnson of near Prairie Hill spent some days with his mother, who is sick. She is some better now.

Dr. Isaiah Knott, Jr., of Keytesville is visiting the little son of J. V. Pointer every other day. This is a very bad case, but the doctor is doing all he can for the little fellow.

The fishing has been so fine since the river has cleared up that most of our people have grown tired of fish, but still the majestic old Chariton rolls quietly on inviting all to her shady nooks who may want to try their luck at angling for the finny tribe.

Mrs. D. M. Brown left Monday for a two-weeks' visit to her son at Cameron.

John Phillips has removed to the A. J. Miller residence, southeast of town.

Jim Mitchell has taken the fore part of the A. Stains property on Center street.

Columbus Haskett came in Friday morning from South Dakota by way of St. Joe.

Chas. Stewart and wife have gotten back from the G. A. R. reunion at Philadelphia.

Mrs. Rmenington and son of Brookfield stopped off here Monday on their way to Triplett.

Rev. O. Beistle is holding a protracted meeting at the Kaye schoolhouse, in consequence of which there were no services in Sumner last Sunday.

Dr. Lew Lewis, who is practicing medicine at Mount Sterling, Ill., is home on a visit.

Miss Maggie Egbert, an attractive young lady from Hale, was here Friday visiting friends.

Mrs. Crank, who has been visiting Mrs. Prunty, started Friday to her son's at Fountain Grove.

We have had recent and substantial proofs that Mrs. J. H. Webb makes unexcelled preserves.

Mrs. Jasper Jones of Hale was here Friday with her son to have his eyes treated by Dr. J. W. Hardy.

W. J. Kelly, a professor of the art of self-defense, was in town Wednesday endeavoring to get up a class.

Frank Simcox, wife and daughter came in Friday from Las Amias, Colorado, to visit his father and mother.

Some two dozen of our people took the morning or evening trains to Chillicothe Tuesday. They went on business (?).

Robinson Bros., the blacksmiths, have found it necessary to extend their machine shop and warehouse 20x24 feet.

Misses Mary and Mildred Miller and Belle Kilpatrick started for the Christian Female college, Columbia, Wednesday morning.

Harry Yeoman of Chicago was here on business Saturday. This gentleman is unexcelled as an expert in thoroughbred stock.

Everybody got safely back from their business trip to Chillicothe Wednesday morning, so far as we know, and themselves as well.

A young son of John McCart died of cholera infantum last Wednesday and was buried Thursday. The funeral services were conducted by "Grandpa" Thos. Abrams.

The following members of Rev. O. Beistle's family are visiting home this week: Belmont Beistle, wife and child of Chula and Mrs. Stella Herndon and child of Braymer.

In the case of Clay vs. Nichols in regard to the illegal removal of cord wood, which was tried last Thursday before Justice Andrews, the defendant was bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $500.

Rev. C. K. Shilling, accompanied by his wife and children, returned Friday from Fayette to his charge in Browning. While in Fayette he and his little son had their tonsils successfully treated by Dr. Moore.

As Rev. J. H. Webb and several of his flock will be attending the meeting of the Baptist association at New Garden church, five miles northeast of Brookfield, there will be no services at the Baptist church next Sunday.

Our public school commenced Monday last with the following enrollment: Prof. Wolfe, room 4, 26; Maud Lewis, room 3, 34; Lola Stains, room 2, 39; J. B. Coleman, room 1, 37. Total 136. There is expected to be an addition of about 25.

Mrs. Mary C. Steele, wife of W. C. Steele who lives nine miles southwest of here, died last Thursday of consumption and was laid to rest in the Steele graveyard, Rev. J. H. Webb conducting the funeral services. She leaves a bereaved husband, one boy and three girls.

Saturday S. B. McNay brought in from Long & Son's stock farm another thoroughbred bull calf, which had been purchased by Harry Yeoman of Chicago for $150 and was shipped to Mrs. King's ranch at Alice, Texas. The calf's name is Blango, was sired by Earl Kellogg and dammed by Blanch, and weighed 850 pounds. Its grandparents were imported animals.

The ladies of the Christian church had another of their recherches ice-cream suppers Friday night at the Lakewood hotel, which was enjoyed by all participants. Some 15 little girls have organized themselves into an auxiliary and style themselves the "Willing Workers," with Rose Leiner as president, Bessie Smith, vice-president, Tina Barnhart, secretary, and Athie Barnhart, treasurer. If they continue to compound such good cake as we sampled Friday, they will be a success.
